

Responsible Care—Care for Society through Self-Discipline and Responsibility

The 17th

December 1-2, 2022

Welcome Message

On behalf of the Taiwan Responsible Care Association, I welcome you to the 17th Asia Pacific Responsible Care Virtual Conference hosted by TRCA on December 1-2.

APRCC has a tradition of meetings hosted by different national associations to experience different customs in other countries biennially, to share our experiences in Responsible Care implementation, and our efforts in safety, health, environment, and sustainability. For the 17th APRCC, supposed to be held in 2021, TRCA is looking forward to welcoming representatives from 17 countries of the Asia Pacific Responsible Care Organization (APRO) in Taiwan and happily holding the biennial event. After a one-year delay and waiting, due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, we are truly glad to finally get the opportunity to meet you all online, instead of face-to-face, which is a pity to say. However, we shall save our heartfelt welcome for your visit to Taiwan until the very next time.

The theme of APRCC 2022 is “Responsible Care—Care for Society through Self-Discipline and Responsibility.” Through self-discipline and continuous improvement in our performance in safety, health, environment, and sustainability, we can achieve our goal of caring for society. We believe giant leaps often start with small steps. Therefore, the global chemical industry is actively working hard to meet and even go beyond the legal requirements, hoping that we can finally overcome the challenges of climate change, become a solution provider, and fulfill our responsibility as a member of the global village.

We welcome partners interested in 2050 Net Zero Transition, Sustainability, Chemical Management, Process Safety, and Responsible Care to attend the conference. Whether you are an employee in the chemical industry or a friend who cares about these issues, we look forward to meeting you online on December 1-2.

I wish you and your family good health and a safe plant operation. Look forward to meeting you next time in Taiwan.

Hsichin Tsai, Chairman
Taiwan Responsible Care Association

Who Should Attend

Echoing the spirit of Responsible Care on non-confidential sharing of health, safety, environment, and sustainability practices, the APRCC hopes to gather all Responsible Care practitioners from the chemical and chemical-related industries in this region for a valuable networking session of ideas and information exchange.

- Senior, Mid-level Management and Engineers

This will be the only platform to hear from global and regional chemical industry leaders about the implementation of the Responsible Care program. It will serve as a guide to excite and inspire the next generation of engineers on their path to continuing Responsible Care and business sustainability.

- Chemical industry players who have not yet joined the Responsible Care program.

Implementing a Responsible Care program improves health, safety, and environmental performance, while also improving business operations and sustainability. It is a unique program for the chemical industry influencing changes in safety culture and mindset. This provides peers in the industry with a network of mutual assistance and encouragement.
